Adenauer Urges
East-West Non-
Aggression PactOutlines Peace
Plan in Address
To Press Club

WASHINGTON (CP)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today called for an East-West non-aggression treaty as the climax to a "great and proud" four-point program for world peace.

The 78-year-old free German leader cautioned, however, that the free world would have to move ahead on the peace project carefully and only on the basis of great strength.

Adenauer outlined the peace plan at a National Press Club lunch following two days of talks with President Eisenhower. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and other U. S. leaders.

He said he was "happy to see" that leading free world statesmen backed by public opinion "are agreed on this program"—the four-point plan for peace.

Adenauer then gave this rundown of his plan for dealing with the Russians and their Red satellites:

1. "The peoples of the West must first secure their freedom and their peace by combining for their common defense."

2. "They must create sound and stable economic conditions within the free world, and guarantee human freedom and social security to everyone."

3. "They should prepare for the future by giving their forms of association a purely defensive character, endowing them with all the elements requisite for a system of collective security."

4. "Finally, they should jointly as a regional group—as provided for in the United Nations' charter—enter into a relationship, to be settled by treaty, with the Soviet bloc, a relationship which would offer all those participating security against aggression."

While this program is underway, Adenauer said, the free world must emphasize that "any continuation of the Soviets' attempt to Bolshevize by force nations and parts of nations against their expressed will" would not bring about relaxation of tensions.

Key Figure in Kidnap Ransom
Mystery Shot

ST. LOUIS (CP)—Joseph Costello, an ex-convict and key figure in the Greenlease kidnap ransom mystery, was found shot and seriously wounded in a bedroom at his home early today, police reported.

Costello told police the shooting was an accident. He said his revolver accidentally discharged as he was cleaning it at 3:15 a. m. The bullet penetrated his left shoulder.

Costello's wife told police she was in the downstairs kitchen of their home, fixing Costello some warm cereal, when she heard the shot. She rushed upstairs to the bedroom where she found her husband lying wounded on the floor. She called police.

Costello, operator of a St. Louis taxicab service company, was believed to be the man who tipped off Police Lt. Louis Shoulders to the whereabouts of kidnap-killer Carl Austin Hall on Oct. 6, 1953. Hall and his woman friend, Mrs. Bonnie Heady, were wanted for the kidnaping of 6-year-old Bobby Greenlease in Kansas City a week earlier.

More than half of the $600,000 paid the kidnapers by the Greenlease boy's wealthy father never has been recovered. Hall, who was executed with Mrs. Heady for the boy's murder, insisted to the last that he had most of the ransom money with him when he was arrested by Shoulders and patrolman Elmer Dolan.

Shoulders and Dolan have since been imprisoned for committing perjury in their accounts of handling the ransom money.

Fields, Forests Expected in Best
Autumn Color for Area Tour Sunday

The fields and forests of southern Illinois are expected to be in their best autumn color for the fifth Sunday auto tour of the beauty spots of the area on Oct. 31.

Sunday's tour was originally scheduled for "afternoon only," but has been changed to an all-day affair beginning at 9 a. m. as in the previous tours. The tour also may be joined in the afternoon by those who wish.

The tour will begin at Lick Creek, near Anna in Union county, at 9 a. m. Sunday. Scene of the day's exploration will be towering Draper's Bluff in a remote section 15 miles northeast of Anna. As far as is known, this will be the first organized tour to visit the remote north section. Roads are smooth and there will be very little hiking. Farm wagons and mules will be used if the roads are muddy.

Great balanced rocks, unnamed stone faces, prehistoric bluff homes and beautiful moss beds unmarked by footprints will be visited before lunch. After lunch the group will

Gov't Powerless
To Halt Strikes
At Two A-Plants

WASHINGTON (CP)—Federal officials said today the government will be legally powerless to prevent resumption of strikes at two of its atomic plants if no wage settlement is reached before the 80-day anti-strike injunction expires Saturday night.

The dispute is between the CIO United Gas Coke and Chemical Workers and the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corp., which operates the government-owned plants at Oak Ridge, Tenn., and Paducah, Ky. The government opposed the injunction last Aug. 11 to prevent the walkout.

Union President Elwood Swisher, who planned to fly to Oak Ridge today, said he has received no word to indicate that a settlement is likely. "It looks like two intransigent forces," he said.

Labor Secretary James P. Mitchell made it clear that if a settlement is reached, it will be negotiated on the scene, and not in Washington. He noted that a federal mediator has been trying to reach an on-the-spot settlement.

The Taft-Hartley law provides that if no settlement is reached during the 80-day cooling off period, the President's only recourse to combat a strike is to send a report to Congress with whatever legislative "recommendations" he believes appropriate.

To get prompt action on any legislation he might recommend at this time, President Eisenhower would have to call a special session of Congress.

Negotiations in the present dispute first began last spring. The workers struck at both Paducah and Oak Ridge July 7, but returned to work a few days later after Labor Secretary Mitchell conferred with Swisher and CIO President Walter Reuther. "We haven't asked Reuther to step in this time," Swisher said.

Hinge on Contest
Of Local 103 Vote

SPRINGFIELD (CP)—Louis (Lukes) Karlovic of O'Fallon, a member of Local No. 75, has been declared the unopposed nominee for president of the Progressive Mine Workers of America after tabulation of nominating ballots at PMW offices here.

Karlovic polled 5,951 votes in winning the nomination of 45 of 61 PMW locals. Other candidates polled a total of 1,474 votes.

Other nominees:
Arthur Gramlich, Springfield, vice president, 5,525 votes from 33 locals against 2,354 votes for three others seeking nomination.

Dominic Griva, Bend, co-trustee of the welfare and retirement fund, 5,209 votes from 26 locals against 2,670 votes for two other candidates.

Three candidates for secretary-treasurer will appear on the run-off ballot. Edgar Manley, George Baima and Felix Goodnick were all placed in nomination by the primary voting.

Other Candidates
The voting also produced two candidates for special accountant, Dominic Molinar and Leland Odle.

Five of the seven primary candidates for two positions as auditor were nominated—Ferdinand Hotterott, Belleville; Lyman Dainton, O'Fallon; Harry Wrigley, Collinsville; James E. Morris, Harrisburg; and Harry A. Rann, Harrisburg.

Two were nominated for workmen's compensation representative, Harry Gee of Harrisburg and George Wiemann of O'Fallon, but the nominations will be moot if the post is abolished from the constitution by a special referendum Nov. 8.

Nominees for board member in District No. 6 are Harry Barnish and Marion Basso. James Selkirk was named as an alternate board member nominee, but this post also would be abolished by the Nov. 8 referendum. Henry Dudley is the unopposed nominee for District 6 scale committeeman.

Contest Local 103 Vote
Dino Fratiglioni of Collinsville and Charles Kaemmerer, Belleville, are nominees for District 7 board member. Frank Hoffman, Collinsville, is the lone nominee for scale committeeman.

Eugene Hughes and Earl Hancock, both of Harrisburg, were nominated for board member but the Local 103 vote in that district was being contested. Lovell Hess was nominated for scale committeeman.

Three nominations hinge on the outcome of the Local 103 contest, that of Edgar Manley for secretary-treasurer, Earl Hancock for board member, and John Jones for alternate board member. Floyd Powell was nominated along with Jones for the alternate post.

The district board will set the dates for run-off elections. New officers assume their posts Feb. 1, 1955.

Senator Russell B. Long to Address
Democratic Rally at Eldorado Saturday

Russell B. Long, United States Senator from Louisiana, will be the featured speaker at a big Democratic rally at Eldorado Saturday, starting at 8 p. m. at the city hall, Steve Mitchell, chairman of the Saline County Democratic committee, announced today.

Others listed to speak on the program are Rep. Paul Powell, Kenneth J. Gray, candidate for congress and Ed Merchant, candidate for state senator.

All Democratic candidates on the county ticket—William "Wee" Barrett for sheriff, Don Garrison for clerk, Maynard Cannon for treasurer, Trafton Dennis for judge and Raymond Gardner for superintendent of schools—will also be present and introduced to the crowd.

Preceding the rally at the city hall a $5.00 a plate fund-raising dinner will be held at the Eldorado American Legion home, starting at 6 p. m.

Senator Russell Long, son of the late Senator Huey P. Long, was first elected to the United States Senate Nov. 2, 1948, to fill the unexpired term of the late John H. Overton. At that time he was the youngest member of the senate, having reached the constitutionally required age of thirty the day after his election.

He was reelected Nov. 7, 1950 for a six year term beginning Jan. 3, 1951. In this instance he was the youngest Senator ever reelected to the United States Senate in the nation's history. He is still the youngest member of the senate, despite the fact that he is now senior to half the members of the body.

Senator Long is a graduate of Louisiana State University Law

INSTALL 4,000TH TELEPHONE IN HARRISBURG—The Harrisburg exchange of the General Telephone Company of Illinois celebrated the installation of its 4,000th telephone Thursday when O. L. Turner Sr. (left), proprietor of the Colonial hotel, accepted the service from M. H. Lynch, local exchange manager, upon completion of installation of their P.B.X. switchboard by the local exchange forces. At right is shown Charles Van Bibber, local exchange employee. Mr. Lynch said there has been a 100 per cent increase in the number of telephones in Harrisburg in the last ten years, with 2,000 telephones in service in October, 1944 compared to 4,000 today.

Mr. Turner was the first messenger boy for the first exchange in Harrisburg, known then as the Cumberland Telephone and Telegraph company, which was located above Carp's store which was at that time the Skaggs Harness shop. Mr. Turner stated that since there was no outside connection for long distance, he would run to the resident's house and notify him that he was wanted on the telephone. That was in 1898, but the first telephone in Harrisburg was installed in 1880 in the office and home of H. H. Harris (Register Staff Photo)

Babsonpoll Predicts Democrats to Win
Control of House; GOP Favored in Senate

WASHINGTON (CP)—Babsonpoll predicts the Democrats will win control of the House by 64 seats next Tuesday but rated the Senate race a tossup with the Republicans perhaps having a slight edge.

The poll was made by Babson's Washington Service, a private newsletter for businessmen founded more than 20 years ago by economist Roger W. Babson. Babsonpoll recalled that two years ago it predicted a landslide victory for President Eisenhower and named the four Southern States which he carried.

Babsonpoll made its current survey in cooperation with 215 newspapers which printed its ballots. Readers were asked to fill in the ballots and mail them directly to the organization's office here where the computations were made.

On the basis of its survey Babsonpoll reached these conclusions: That the Republicans are sure to win senatorial contests in California, Idaho and Oregon and will probably win in Wyoming. The Republicans were given the edge in Iowa and Michigan.

That the Democrats are sure to win Senate seats in Delaware, Illinois, New Mexico and Rhode Island and probably in Minnesota and New Jersey. The Democrats were given the edge in Kentucky and Nevada.

The senatorial contests in Colorado, Massachusetts, Montana and Ohio were listed as tossups with

Stevenson Aids
Harriman in
N. Y. Campaign

NEW YORK (CP)—Adlai E. Stevenson throws his political weight into New York's bitter election campaign today in an attempt to help fellow Democrats break a 16-year Republican grip on the state.

The 1952 presidential candidate arrived here from New Jersey Thursday night for a two-day campaign on behalf of a Democratic slate headed by Averell Harriman, nominee for governor.

Stevenson's schedule today includes a speech at a campaign rally in the garment district and an appearance tonight at another party rally in Nassau County on Long Island.

Saturday he will tour Westchester County by motorcade, returning here for an afternoon visit to Harlem and a major evening address at a New York County Democratic rally.

Stevenson's appearance here climaxed a campaign swing through four eastern states considered critical to Democratic hopes for victory in next Tuesday's off-year elections.

Campaigning on behalf of state and congressional candidates in New Jersey Thursday, Stevenson accused the Republicans of ending their 1954 campaigns with a "frenzied outburst of smut, smear and slander."

Urges Democratic Congress
He said Vice President Richard Nixon and New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey were responsible for the Republicans' swing away from President Eisenhower's declaration that the 1954 campaign would be fought on the record of the GOP Congress.

"Instead, as the campaign ends," he said, "the image of democracy is defaced by a frenzied outburst of smut, smear and slander—with the vice president of the United States, if you please, and the governor of New York leading the shrill Republican chorus of defamation and denunciation to the inglorious and bitter end."

He called for election of a Democratic Congress to replace Republican "disunity" on foreign and domestic problems and "bring back intelligence, sobriety and purpose to the American government."

He praised New Jersey Gov. Robert B. Meyner and Democratic senatorial candidate Rep. Charles R. Howell, whose election he urged.

Carries Fight
To 4 States on Political TourPresident Lashes Democratic Softness to Reds

EN ROUTE WITH EISENHOWER (CP)—President Eisenhower today promised voters a "growing prosperity" if they elect a Republican Congress next Tuesday.

He also lashed out at what Republicans have termed a Democratic softness on communism. The President carried his fight for a Republican Congress to four states in a one-day flying political tour, with the four stops designed to help Republican congressional candidates, particularly Senate candidates.

A crowd estimated at 2,000 persons turned out at Cleveland—Hopkins Airport in Cleveland to greet the President, where rain forced his speech to be moved indoors. In Detroit, at the second stop, a crowd estimated at 50,000 jammed Cadillac Square in downtown Detroit. Rain, which had fallen all morning, stopped shortly before the President arrived, and the sun appeared. As he finished speaking, clouds began to gather again.

Later stops were due in Louisville, Ky., and Wilmington, Del.

Hits Softness at Reds
The President in Cleveland to boost Republican Rep. George Bender's campaign to unseat Democratic Sen. Thomas Burke, lashed at what Republicans call Democratic softness to communism. He said his administration started out "tired" of replies of "red herring" by Democrats to charges of communism in their federal administrations.

It was only the third time since he took office he had borrowed the "red herring" term.

In Detroit, where Sen. Homer Ferguson, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy committee is seeking re-election, the President promised a prosperity growing every day.

Democrats have made unemployment a major issue in their drive to unseat Ferguson. With auto production down 18 per cent and defense work cut back, unemployment compensation offices have worked night shifts at times to handle compensation claims.

The President said his administration's policies had resulted in a "strong, stable, growing, expanding economy" and higher standards of living. He boasted the transition from war to peace had been made without a devastating depression. He ridiculed what he called Democratic "prophecies of doom" who had predicted a depression seemingly "with some satisfaction."

The President said the only really prosperous years under recent Democratic administrations had been war years. He said the Republicans want no war prosperity. "I am quite certain that Americans don't want to pay for a pseudo prosperity with the blood of their sons on the battlefield," he said.

The WASHINGTON MERRY-GO-ROUND By DREW PEARSON

DREW PEARSON Says: It Was Attorney General Brownell, Not The Navy, Who Wanted Dr. Condon Cleared A Security Risk; Condon Was To Be Used In New York Campaign To Smeare Averell Harriman; Private Scientists Used As Political Pawns.

WASHINGTON. — The inside story of how Dr. Edward Condon, the scientist now with Corning Glass, was cleared for security on Tuesday, Oct. 19, but unclear on Thursday, Oct. 21, is one of the most amazing in Washington.

It was pure politics, plus the long-distance intervention of Vice President Nixon and a phone call by Attorney General Brownell that did it.

Here is a play-by-play account of why the eminent scientist, who, according to Dr. Edward Teller, shortened development of the H-bomb by one year, found himself Ok'd one day and out on his ear
the next.

As part of the campaign to smeare Averell Harriman, now running for governor of New York, the Eisenhower administration has been digging into the files of the Commerce Department to see what security cases he handled while secretary of commerce. And they were all set to spring three or four cases where Harriman might have been lenient with security risks.

One of the cases was that of Dr. Edward Condon, director of the Bureau of Standards under Harriman and who was pilloried by the House committee on Un-American Activities when Vice President Nixon was a member.

There was never any charge that Condon was a Communist but that his wife was indiscreet and that some of his friends were left of center.

Harriman, when secretary of commerce, refused to fire Condon, felt that he was unfairly treated, and flew here from Sun Valley, Idaho, to defend him.
Eventually, however, Condon got tired of being hammered over the head by congressional committees and resigned to take a job with private industry. Since scientists of his calibre are hard to find, he was snapped up by Corning Glass, a staunch Republican outfit, whose former president, Alan B. Houghton, was appointed ambassador to the Court of St. James by Calvin Coolidge.

The father-in-law of Congressman Sterling Cole of New York, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, is also secretary of Corning Glass and defended Condon even more than Averell Harriman.

CONDON IS CLEARED

However, Republican National committee strategy of making a big issue of the Condon case was seriously set back when it became known last week that the Defense Department's eastern regional security board cleared Dr. Condon.
The security board, of course, did not realize they were pin-pricking one of the carefully inflated balloons in the GOP campaign. In fact, they acted last summer though the news leaked out only last week.

Vice President Nixon was given this bad news while campaigning in the far west and immediately hit the ceiling. He demanded that the Condon security clearance be reversed.

Simultaneously, Attorney General Brownell telephoned Secretary of the Navy Charles Thomas. He gave instructions that the security cloud over Dr. Condon's head must be put back where it was.

At that time, believe it or not,
Secretary of the Navy Thomas didn't even know Dr. Condon had been cleared. In fact, he knew nothing at all about the matter.
He didn't know, among other things, that the Corning Glass company had asked that Dr. Condon have access to classified material; nor did he know that this was put up to the Army-Navy-Air Force security board, which turned down the request on Feb. 10, 1953. Condon then appealed.

Meanwhile, the security system had been changed, and three special boards were set up, according to geographic regions, to handle security matters concerning industrial plants. Thus Condon's appeal reached the eastern regional security board in July, 1953, which took one full year — until July, 1954, to act. The board made a most thorough investigation, and in the end Dr. Condon was cleared.

CONDON IS UNCLEAR

This news, however, was not published until last week on Oct.
19. And it did not reach the secretary of the navy until Attorney General Brownell, former chairman of the Republican committee and ex-campaign manager for Dewey, phoned to ask why the Navy was clearing a man who was about to figure in the campaign against Averell Harriman.

At this point, Secretary Thomas sent for the file on Dr. Condon.
The file is so voluminous that it

Meek Turns Down Invitation By Eisenhower

CHICAGO (AP)—Joseph T. Meek, Republican candidate for U. S. senator, today turned down an invitation to meet President Eisenhower at Detroit. Instead, he will work "day and night toward my election so that I may greet you on Jan. 3 as the junior senator from Illinois."

Leonard Hall, Republican national chairman, told Meek in a telegram Thursday that the President "asked me to get in touch with you in the hope that you can be at Detroit with him."

"In any event," Hall said, "as he wrote you some time ago, he will be looking forward to seeing you in Washington on Jan. 3 as the junior senator from Illinois."

Meek wired Mr. Eisenhower that "your request to have me meet you in Detroit is further evidence of your staunch support."

He told Mr. Eisenhower he would have to "forego this honor and privilege" because "I am working day and night toward my election so that I may greet you on Jan. 3 as the junior senator from Illinois."

Meek On TV Debate
Meek appeared with his Democratic opponent, Sen. Paul H. Douglas, on a television debate Thursday.

Meek accused Douglas of "a typical kind of double-talk" in saying that the Republicans had inflicted a recession and inflation on the country at the same time.

"This is part and parcel of the gloom and doom program he has used over the state, not too successfully," Meek said. "It is part and parcel of the talk which caused President Eisenhower to call my opponent a 'crooked fence economist'."

In reply to a Douglas assertion that he would support the administration better than Meek, the GOP candidate said "That is not what the President told me."

"He and the vice president indicated that Mr. Douglas is a representative of the left wing ADA (Americans for Democratic Action) kind of people," Meek said.

Meek said the Democrats hope to gain control of Congress so they can bring about the defeat of President Eisenhower in 1956.

Fears "Old Guard" Killing GOP
Later, Douglas told a precinct meeting that right-wing Republican charges of "20 years of treason" by the Democrats were destroying GOP moderation.

"We need a two-party system in this country, but I honestly fear that the Old Guard with its unspeakable tactics is murdering honest and enlightened Republicanism," Douglas said.

The Democrats who have been accused of treason, Douglas said, gave the country a "farm program that resurrected the farmer from bankruptcy... collective bargaining for labor, decent minimum wages, unemployment compensation and social security for old age."

He said the Democrats had also effected "a foreign trade program on a reciprocal basis that lifted the world out of an economic slough of despond."

Jim let the current fasten him against the rock wall, to one side of the opening. He pulled. For a second he made progress, felt the warmth of renewed hope. He could make out a darker shape now, could see wildly swirling hair streaming in the water. He pulled again, pulled more strongly. He could not budge the body wedged there so tightly. Nancy's body. He knew that from the first instant of contact.

The three depressions, the rocks rolled down into the water, came to his mind clearly. Rocks levered or pushed into place where they would serve as corks, partial corks. Held by the current, leaving an opening large enough for water, impossible for passage of even Nancy's body.

He found the boulders, the rounded rocks, there. Each of them weighing possibly 100 pounds, each of them moving with the push of water to close the death trap still tighter.

He found the rock which pressed so brutally against Nancy's limp body. He clawed at it.

His nails tore away from numb fingers as they slipped from the rounded surface.

He clawed again, reached past the rounded crown of the rock. There was a slight ridge, a formation of some harder rock which had resisted water action. His fingers clenched on it. He pulled. He knew the grip on Nancy's arm was tightening painfully with the effort the other arm exerted to move away the stone.

There was sudden despair. He had to breathe or die. And he told himself to die if he could not release his wife.

A last effort, an effort of desperation which sent sharp pains through his left arm and shoulder, pains which registered even on his clouding brain. The rock moved toward him a little. It rolled over. He lost his hold, was pushed backward from the sudden release of the violence of his effort. But there was no strain on his left arm. Nancy was floating toward him. She stuck again, and he jerked her free with the last of his strength.

She was cradled in his arms when he came to the surface of the pool.

For a moment he let the current hold him, while his ears cleared of the roaring, while the red mist gradually lessened, let him see again. He began moving toward the bank, toward safety for Nancy. He saw the pair of legs then. Legs which straddled the beam of the flash, legs which did not seem to be fastened to any body. But the legs moved.

The flashlight rolled, slipped quickly to the water's edge, plunged beneath the surface. For a moment its glow zigzagged toward the bottom. The light failed. Blackness rushed again into the underground cavern.

A match flared, and light wavered in the air of the cavern. It showed the face of Philip Stoneman, and it showed his other hand, outstretched. An empty hand, one that seemed to be extended in a desire to help.

The match went out.

Philip struck another match. His lips seemed to be moving, but Dunn heard no words. He began moving forward slowly, toward the man crouched now on the safe path. Jim supported Nancy easily in the crook of his aching left arm. His whole body was tensed, ready for any violence which might be necessary. If Philip helped, fine. If he was there to hinder, he could not be allowed to do so. Philip would be removed. Jim's mind fastened firmly on that simple fact.

Stoneman's fingers closed on Jim's outstretched hand. With the contact, Jim relaxed. There was no menace in that touch. He could even make out what Philip was saying now. "Me and my big feet, chum. Sorry I kicked over the light."

Jim put Nancy on the ledge, accepted help himself.

Water came from Nancy's lungs as Jim set up the rhythm of pressure and release. He did not dare let his mind hold any thought of failure, and all unbidden, words substituted themselves for the usual numbers of the rhythm count. Some studio chemical for Mrs. Oswald. Lighter fluid from her lighter for Miss Wister. "Gasoline, turpentine, alcohol, chemical, lighter fluid." Over and over, the words lending themselves for the proper timing.

It came at last, the sign for which Jim had waited. To him, the most beautiful sound in the whole world—the sobbing "catch-of-the-breath," and a series of gasping irregular breaths, as Nancy's body took over the duty of supplying life and oxygen.

The doctor gave his verdict. "She'll be fine. I gave her something so she'll sleep soon. Keep her warm and quiet for a day or so." When he was gone Nancy made a face at Jim.

"Keep quiet," he ordered. "You heard what the man said."

"I knew you'd find me, Jim. Even when I was stuck. I knew you'd get there. Even when that person came into the cave after me and I threw a rock, I knew I'd be all right."

Dunn rubbed the swelling on the top of his head, decided this was no time to bring that up. "How do you feel, Nancy?"

"Just dandy. Simply dandy. Every one of my ribs are broken. I'm black and blue from here to there. My chest is on fire. And Jim, it's so good to be alive! So good. A person should spend a lifetime just enjoying air."

Babies 'Mixed Up', Mothers Refuse To Trade Back

LONDON (AP) — A hospital operated by Britain's socialized National Health Service revealed today that it "unfortunately" had given two babies to the wrong mothers.

It said the mothers have refused to trade them back again.

The management of Forest Gate Hospital, in the industrial suburb of West Ham, confirmed that "beyond a doubt" through a mix-up in wrist and crib tags, Mrs. Sheila Read, 24, and Mrs. Vera Bowers, 22, have been nursing each other's dark-haired, blue-eyed boys since the infants were born five weeks ago.

But the two mothers, despite "conclusive" blood tests and the pleadings of their husbands, have refused to switch the babies they have learned to love.

"This is my baby and no one will take him away," said Mrs. Bowers.

To Voters of Saline County: Please Read This Article

It has come to our attention that recently a letter was addressed to the Republican candidate for County Judge, quoting a resolution commending said Republican candidate and recommending him as a competent man for the office of Judge of our Saline County Court.

Said resolution was supposed to be passed by the Harrisburg Ministerial Association. We are further informed that at this supposed meeting there were only four ministers present out of thirty-four that belong to the association. One of the ministers attending was making his first appearance at the ministers' meeting. Two others were not of long standing in the association and hesitated to pass the resolution. The fourth was an older member who urged that the resolution be passed. The association is comprised of thirty-four members, therefore thirty of the thirty-four members had nothing to do with this resolution and apparently knew nothing about it. It therefore becomes apparent that such endorsements cannot possibly reflect the views of the entire association which was without the consent and approval of thirty of the good and substantial ministers of the association.

At a later meeting of the Saline County Dry Association held on Oct. 14 endorsements were again supposedly passed favoring the same mentioned candidate and also the Republican candidate for Sheriff. These two Republican candidates were invited to this meeting. The Democrat candidates for these offices were not invited. Was this fair to the Democrat candidates for the same offices?

The facts are that Trafton Dennis, the Democrat candidate for County Judge, has been an active member of the McKinley Avenue Baptist Church for 25 years. That Trafton Dennis, Democrat candidate for County Judge, has been a Sunday School teacher in said church off and on for many years and constantly for the past two years, he being away from his church 29 months while in the service of his country, 19 months of which were spent overseas in World War II.

When the said church was preparing to raise funds with which to build a new church, Trafton Dennis organized the corporation to handle the legal work in preparing the drafts of the bonds and is at the present time a trustee for the Bond holders, all of this being done to serve his church.

The facts are that William T. "Wee" Barrett, Democrat candidate for Sheriff, has worked hard for a living since his childhood, delivering groceries from the Burnett's store; worked in the coal mines; served on the Saline County Board of Supervisors for four years; served as Police Commissioner for the City of Eldorado; served on the liquor control commission for two years in Saline County; worked 3½ years as Service Officer for the Illinois Veterans Commission located at Harrisburg; served 2½ years in the service of his country and 13 months being overseas.

The President of the Dry Association states that an investigation is made of each and every candidate before he is endorsed.

Did the investigation of the Dry Association reveal the fact that Layman Jones, the Republican Candidate for Sheriff was on an active committee for the wets at the last Wet and Dry Election in the City of Eldorado which was held in April 1951?

Did this investigation reveal that from the different organizations in Eldorado, there were appointed members to carry on the campaign of the wets, together with the former tavern owners and liquor interests, and did this investigation reveal that the organization of these people, which included the said Republican candidate for Sheriff, was elected to manage the campaign for the wets at this election?

Regardless of what the association's investigation revealed about Mr. Jones the foregoing facts are supported by affidavits.

Let us be fair and honest when making endorsements. Let us be fair with our conscience when we cast our vote on Election Day.

Saline County Democratic Central Committee

Lest We Forget—

An outstanding War Record is not a sufficient reason for electing a man to public office but when a man has all the qualifications necessary to efficiently conduct the duties of office, his service for his Country should be given careful thought and consideration.

Don B. Garrison, Candidate for re-election to the office of County Clerk served honorably in World War II:

33 months service; 19 months overseas; 23 missions on a Heavy Bomber bombing Germany and German held territory; as a Turret Gunner shot down 2 German Planes; participated in the First Shuttle Bombing of Germany, flying from England, bombing Germany and landing in Africa, and making the return trip bombing enemy held positions the following day.

Don B. Garrison was shot down over Germany. He was wounded seven times, suffered a broken arm and shattered leg. Three amputations were necessary on his leg. He was a Prisoner of War 11 months.

He was awarded the DISTINGUISHED FLYING CROSS, AIR MEDAL 4 times and the PURPLE HEART.

Don B. Garrison has served you efficiently and impartially as County Clerk of Saline County. Retain Don B. Garrison as your County Clerk. His Record speaks for itself.

League Blocks Sale of A's To Philadelphia Group; Kansas City Hopes Soar

NEW YORK (AP) — Kansas City's almost-dead hopes of obtaining the Philadelphia Athletics flared into new life today now that the American League has blocked the sale of the team to a Philadelphia syndicate.

"I still hope to bring the A's to Kansas City," said Chicago real estate man Arnold Johnson. "They (the league's club owners) turned down my competitor and naturally that makes me feel optimistic. I will meet with my attorneys shortly to discuss our next move."

In Kansas City, the once-disappointed fans weren't letting their enthusiasm carry them away but Mayor William E. Kemp declared, "Our feelings have not changed."

"We'll still be awfully happy to have them," said Kemp. "The enthusiasm for the Athletics will be revived in Kansas City on assurance they're coming. They'll have a great season here."

Johnson's Kansas City group was left alone in the bidding for the Athletics' franchise when the American League club owners voted in a meeting here against approval of the Mack family's sale of the team to an eight-man Philadelphia syndicate.

Besides selling to Johnson, the only alternative that seems open to the Macks now would be to go on operating the team themselves — and the chances of that seem remote.

But there is no certain solution of the problem in sight and Dan Topping, owner of the New York Yankees who spearheaded the opposition to the Philadelphia group, admitted as much when he said, "Now we are right back where we started from a month ago."

And at least two owners — Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators and Walter O. (Spike) Briggs of the Detroit Tigers — insist they still are opposed to moving the team to Kansas City.

Griffith, who was represented at the meeting by his son, Calvin, said in Washington that he was "sorry" the league voted down the Philadelphia group and added, "I don't think they'll vote for Johnson to go to Kansas City — I hope not."

Griffith believes he and Briggs may be joined in their opposition to Kansas City by the Boston Red Sox and Chicago White Sox.

Transfer of a franchise to a new city requires a vote of six of the eight league club owners, and thus a move might be blocked by the anti-Kansas City group. But Johnson maintains that a new vote on his offer isn't necessary, since the league voted approval of a transfer to Kansas City at a meeting in Chicago on Oct. 12.

Yesterday's action bore out my contention that the club was really sold to me in Chicago," said Johnson.

Rejection of the Philadelphia group came after a 6½-hour meeting, which began with the owners listening to a personal plea from 92-year-old Connie Mack for approval of the deal. The beloved "Mr. Mack" made his appeal, then rested in another room while the owners deliberated. He came back to listen to the vote that went against him, then left the room on the arm of his chauffeur-valet and walked shakily away with tears in his eyes.

Bull Dogs Drop 28-0 Tilt to Assumption In Game on Muddy Field

Pioneers Penalized
140 Yards, 75 for Roughness in Contest

The Harrisburg Bull Dog grid-ders travelled all the way to East St. Louis to lose a "naval conflict," 28 to 0, last night to the Assumption 11.

It was a football game, but it was played in a sea of mud at Parsons Field. And in this engagement, the officials stepped off 140 yards in penalties against the East St. Louis outfit, penalizing the Pioneers five times for roughness. There was no roughness penalties against the locals. That is some sort of indication as to the kind of game it was.

But the Assumption team last night was a bigger, faster, better blocking outfit than the Bull Dogs and wouldn't have had to resort to any extra-curricular activities to stop their sixth victory of the season in seven starts. The blocking was the best the Bull Dogs have been up against this year.

Locals Net 68 Yards
The statistics show that Harrisburg made nine first downs to eight for Assumption, but penalties against the Pioneers figured in six of the local first-and-tens.

Harrisburg made a net 54 yards rushing and 14 passing for a 68 yards total from scrimmage to 154 net rushing and 34 passing for a 188-yard total for Assumption.

Harrisburg completed two out of 11 passes thrown for 14 yards, one an 11-yard gain on the last play of the game on a pass, Wayne Hefner to Joe Dorris, and had four of them intercepted, three by quarterback Mike Magac, 215-pound quarterback.

Assumption passed three times. The first two were intercepted but the last one, for 34 yards, took the opponents to the H-5, from where a touchdown was made.

In the penalty department, Assumption was penalized 140 yards, 75 for roughness, and Harrisburg was penalized 45, twice for holding, once for clipping.

Two TD's in First Period
A fumbled punt by Harrisburg set up the first Assumption tally. It was recovered on the H-21 and four plays later Dave Buckley, halfback, carried over from the 7. Lou Holdener's kick made the count 7 to 0.

In this same first quarter Assumption scored again. Starting on the H-42 after carrying back a punt that far, it took six plays to take the ball over, with Leo Wolf, halfback, going the final 20 yards. Holdener again kicked the extra point.

There was no scoring in the second and third quarters as Harrisburg stiffened and played better offensive ball, but early in the final frame Assumption scored after a pass, Magac to Halpin, moved the ball to the five. Plunges of two, two and one yard took the ball over with Leroy Huskamp getting the touchdown. Holdener again place-kicked the ball through the uprights and the count was 21 to 0.

Final tally came when Harrisburg attempted a forward pass from the H-41 and Chaklos grabbed the ball out of the air on his own 35 and ran 65 yards to score. This time Huskamp plunged for the extra point.

Play W. Frankfurt Next
In the last three minutes of play Harrisburg moved to the A-12 but lost the ball on downs. On the last play of the game the Bull Dogs moved to the A-28 and had a first down when the contest ended.

Vince Martinez
Meets Fiore
In Bout Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — Tonight's return TV-radio bout between welterweights Vince Martinez and Carmine Fiore at Madison Square Garden shapes up as an excellent fight, for a change.

Handsome Martinez of Paterson, N. J., seventh-ranking contender, is favored at 12.5 to win again over Brooklyn's unranked but dangerous left-hooker in the scheduled 10-round.

Before their first bout on Jan. 30, 1953, in the Garden, "Violent Vince" was favored at 5-1. He won the unanimous decision by a good margin but had his knees buckled by left hooks in the fourth and 10th rounds.

Despite that victory, the odds are much lower for tonight because Martinez now is in the throes of serious managerial difficulties and because Fiore is believed to be the "sharper" due to the better brand of his recent opponents.

Army to Send Several Batteries of Artillery
Rocket to Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army announced today that several batteries of the new artillery rocket, the "Honest John," will be sent to Europe in the next few months.

The "Honest John" is a long-range artillery rocket capable of carrying either atomic or high explosive warheads. With a range of from 10 to 20 miles, it will be used to provide close fire support in ground combat operations.

The "Honest John" is a free-flight rocket—that is—it is not guided electronically in flight as are guided missiles. However, the Army says it has an accuracy approaching that of standard artillery weapons.

Indiana is Two-TD Underdog in Michigan Tilt

Buckeyes Favored
To Beat Northwestern;
Illini Meet Purdue

CHICAGO (AP) — Indiana's potential "giant-killers" get a chance to confuse the Big Ten football race Saturday as the two-touchdown underdog against Michigan, tied with Ohio State for the league lead.

The Hoosiers last week lost a 27-14 decision to Iowa, a team beaten previously by Michigan, 14-13. But Coach Bernie Crimmins proclaimed that "someday we're going to put together two good halves and when we do, somebody is going to get hurt."

Should Indiana get those two good halves this week, then it could upset the Wolverines. The Hoosiers have won only once in five starts, but last Saturday lost three touchdowns on their own errors and set up two low scores on their fumbles. Michigan has lost to Army and gained four victories.

"I'd hate to be playing Indiana the day that team jells," Hawkeye Coach Forrest Evashevski declared. "I've been calling myself the unluckiest coach in the business, but after that game 'I'll take second place to Bernie'."

Ohio State, winner of four Big Ten games and unbeaten in five contests, was a 14-point favorite over Northwestern at Evanston and there seemed little chance the Wildcats, who haven't won a Big Ten game since 1952, could turn in an upset.

Illinois Plays Purdue
The Buckeyes, though, will lose guard Jim Parker through injury, but Northwestern has three players, Bob Lauter, John Damore and Jim Trogho hampered by injuries.

Michigan State, defending co-champion of the league, but winner of only one game in five starts, was a 1-point favorite to defeat Minnesota at Minneapolis. The Spartans, despite their record, have lost to clubs rated among the best in Big Ten while Minnesota, beaten only by Michigan in five games, has triumphed over Illinois and Northwestern in conference play.

The other defending co-champion Illinois, was a 13-point underdog for its bout at Purdue, which has tied one game and lost only to Wisconsin in remaining a Big Ten title contender.

The fifth conference match pairs Wisconsin and Iowa, both rated among the best in the league, at Iowa City with Wisconsin a 6-point choice. Wisconsin last year dropped the improving Hawkeyes, 10-6.

Notre Dame returns to action after an open date as the 14-point favorite over Navy for a meeting at Baltimore.

HALL OF FAME
PHILADELPHIA (NEA) — plaque honoring the election of the late Billy Knox to the American Bowling Congress Hall of Fame was presented to his widow here. Knox rolled the first 300 in ABC tournament play.

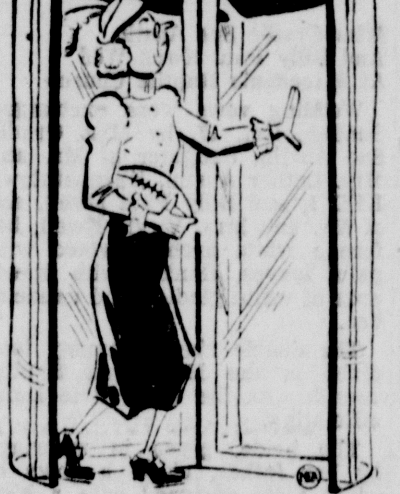

Cucumber Cultivation
The cucumber came to the New World with Columbus, was planted in Haiti in 1494, and spread so quickly that 46 years later De Soto noted Florida Indians were growing them "better than those of Spain."

QUICK KICKS

By CHET SMITH
Written for NEA Service
They tagged this one on Clark Shaughnessy when the T-formation genius was coaching Pittsburgh. If it didn't happen to him we'll have to beg his pardon for borrowing the name.

Then Panthers had been laboring through a dismal season. Came early November and Shaughnessy was invited to address a luncheon club in a downtown hotel.

There were many distractions that morning and Shaughnessy, late for his appointment, darted through the revolving door leading into the lobby with such speed that he capsize a little old lady who got in his path.

Had in hand and all apologies, the coach helped her to her feet. "No offense, madam," he exclaimed. "You're telling me!" snapped the victim, flouncing on her way.

RUPTURE

Expert Coming Here Again.

R. K. SHALLENBERGER

Nationally known expert will personally demonstrate his method without charge at the Horning Hotel, Harrisburg, Tuesday evening, Nov. 2, from 5 p. m. to 8 p. m.

Mr. Shallenberger says the Shallenberger method contracts the openings in remarkably short time on the average case, regardless of the size or location of the rupture and no matter how much you lift or strain, and puts you back to work the same day as efficient as before you were ruptured.

The Shallenberger Rupture Shield has no leg strap; water proof, sanitary, practically indestructible and can be worn while bathing. Each shield is skillfully molded and fitted to the parts under heat, which gives a perfect fit and satisfaction.

Large and difficult ruptures following operations especially solicited.

Do not overlook this opportunity if you want gratifying results. Mailing address: Angola, Indiana. —(Adv.)

EXCHANGE MARRIAGE VOWS—Mr. and Mrs. Billy Paul Ewell who were married Sunday, Oct. 17, at Macedonia Baptist church. (Foster Studio Photo)

Miss Gracie Sue Austin and Billy Paul Ewell Wed at Macedonia Baptist Church

Wedding vows were exchanged Sunday, Oct. 17, by Miss Gracie Sue Austin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Austin, Elizabethtown RFD 1, and Billy Paul Ewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgie Ewell, before a white arch entwined with palm leaves, flanked with standards of white gladioli and candelabra.

The double ring ceremony took place in the Macedonia Baptist church with the Rev. Alvie Daily officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a gown of white satin designed with a high collar and a round yoke of white daisies. The long sleeves tapered over the hand, and the skirt was fashioned with four tiers. Her veil of illusion which was sprinkled with daisies was secured to a crown of satin and daisies. She carried white gladioli on a white Bible.

Miss Van Marie Hall, Cave-in-Rock, was maid of honor wearing a gown of powder blue with a lace bodice. She carried a bouquet of gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Dorothy and Evon Suits who were dressed in rose and pale blue gowns, respectively. Both carried gladioli.

The bride's uncle, Dale Suits, Eldorado, served as best man.

Ray Phelps, soloist, accompanied by Barbara Cooper at the piano, sang "Love You Truly" and "Because."

Ushers were the bride's brother, Luther Weldon Austin, Bob Cronk, Gilbert Gibbs, uncle of the bridegroom, Donald Cooper, Cecil Ray Gibbs and Billy Earl Gribble.

Mrs. Austin chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue suit with pink and black accessories, and Mrs. Ewell was also dressed in navy with pink and black accessories.

A reception was held after the wedding at the bridegroom's home on Harrisburg RFD 3.

The bride is a former student at the Cave-in-Rock high school, but will finish school at the Harrisburg Township high school where she is a senior. The bridegroom graduated from HTHS with the class of 1954 and is a farmer by occupation.
